Termination of South Australian Gold Projects Acquisition

The Directors of PepinNini Lithium Ltd (PNN, the Company) announce in relation to the proposed acquisition announced ASX:24th December 2019 that after careful consideration, due diligence by the Company and external independent review the project did not have merit to warrant the initially offered price. Subsequently it has not been possible to reach an agreement with Patron Resources Ltd as to the value of and transaction agreement for the acquisition. Consequently, as per the terms announced ASX:24th December 2019 the Company has ended the Term Sheet.

The Company continues to explore other strategic investment acquisitions.

This announcement was authorised for issue by the Directors of PepinNini Lithium Ltd
